

Pray for

SOMALILAND

INcontext International

Somaliland citizens headed to the polls for the third time since their self-proclaimed independence from Somalia in 1991.

INcontext International

Somaliland hopes that a third consecutive free and fair election will bolster their chance of international recognition as a nation.

PRAY FOR SOMALILAND

- That the newly elected president will lead his people in a Godly manner

- That Somaliland citizens can continue to live peaceably

- That the small body of believers will be encouraged and emboldened to share their faith

Pray for SOMALILAND

INcontext International

Somaliland citizens hope that this week's election will bolster their case for independence.

PRAY

That the newly elected president will lead his people in a Godly manner

That Somaliland citizens continue to live peaceably

That the small body of believers will be encouraged and emboldened to share their faith