AFGHANISTAN

INcontext International

Fear is gripping Kabul where residents feel unprotected after multiple attacks in recent days claimed the lives of over 150 people.

INcontext International

Anti-government protests in the capital turned deadly when security forces fired to disperse angry crowds demanding improved security.

PRAY FOR AFGHANISTAN

- That the cycle of violence be broken and meaningful steps be made towards peace

- That those who lost loved ones and those injured would be comforted

- That Afghans, desperately seeking peace, will meet the Prince of Peace
