

Pray for

CAMEROON

INcontext International

The Cameroon government used force to subdue protests in English-dominant regions, killing at least 8 people.

Protests from English minorities within Cameroon have grown from calls for greater rights to demands for independence.

PRAY FOR CAMEROON

- That the government addresses the English minorities' grievances responsibly

- That leaders of the minority will seek non-violent solutions

- That believers from both sides will actively seek ways to bridge the divide
